Experience

Student at LaunchCode

January 2018 - Present

LC 101 is a 20-week course designed to prepare participants to become web developers. The course is taught in several programming languages, including Python, Java, and Javascript. All students will complete the same core curriculum in Python and then learn a specialized language track designed to hone key skills that are in high demand.

Field Sales Representative at Texas & U.S. Law Shield

April 2017 - September 2017 (6 months)

- 72 man hours saved each month. Local team was able to meet monthly goal of visiting 30 area facilities in a 150 mile radius. I took over role of area manager after we lost our previous area manager unexpectedly.
- Saved company $1000 monthly in St. Louis area after taking on administrative duties to include managing shared calendar and updating and maintaining Sales Force

Student

January 2016 - February 2017 (1 year 2 months)

Taking Baccalaureate classes at Saint Louis University

Supply Officer at US Navy

June 2012 - December 2015 (3 years 7 months)

- Doubled profits for FY 14 equaling $95,000. Managed the successful onload and install of two additional vending machines on USS NORMANDY.
- Created and maintained a database of delinquent parts with more than two instances of exceptionally long lead times or high rates of failure. My team fixed the breakdown in the Supply Chain and 60 ships were able to adhere to the operational schedule and budget for FY 15
- Scored 97% on the Supply Management Certification Inspection, which qualified our ship for the Battle Excellence Award. Managed a team of 10 people who spent 6 months preparing and working overtime to meet the minimum score of 80% for the ship to stay operational and 85% to qualify for the Battle Excellence award. Awarded Battle Excellence Award

- Scored 90% on unannounced financial audit. Had to score at least an 80% for the ship to continue on its deployment schedule. Working alone as the ships Disbursing Officer, I maintained daily, weekly and monthly financial records above and beyond the standards set by the Navy.
- Complete accountability maintained during the unexpected flooding of the Disbursing Office including financial records, treasury checks, debit cards and cash on hand.
